Some municipalities may require a Certificate of Occupancy or Housing Code Letter to be issued. If any is required for this property, Seller shall obtain it at Seller's expense and shall be responsible to make and pay for any repairs required in order to obtain the Certificate or Letter. However, if this expense should exceed $ 300.00 to the Seller, then the Seller may terminate this contract and refund to the Buyer all deposit monies plus Buyer's reasonable expenses, if any, in preparing to make settlement. The Buyer may elect to make repairs in excess of $ 300.00 at the Buyer's expense. In addition, Seller shall comply with the New Jersey State Law, and local ordinances, including but Generally, an easement is a right of a person, other than the owner, of the property to use a portion of the property for a special purpose. A restriction is a recorded limitation on the use of the property. A violation of any restriction shall not be a reason for Buyer refusing to complete settlement as long as the Title Company insures the Buyer against actual loss at regular rates.

The Seller states, to the best of the Seller's knowledge, that there are no restrictions in any conveyance or plans of record that will prohibit use and/or occupancy of the property as a single family residential dwelling. The Seller states that all buildings and other improvements on the property are within its boundary lines.
